Sunday test dates are available (at limited locations) for students who cannot test on Saturday because of religious convictions. See each testing agency's website for details and registration procedures.

Fee Waivers: SAT/ACT fee waivers are available to high school juniors or seniors who are either on "FREE" or "REDUCED LUNCH" (there are other ways to qualify based on family income and other factors). Students may receive up to 2 SAT and 2 ACT testing fee waivers and up to 8 College Application Waivers. See Ms. Gilman, our CAP Advisor, to request these fee-waivers if you are eligible.

Registration is ONLY available online (and registrants are now required to upload a photo for identification purposes):

Other fees may be required for other services such as:

- Standby testing for the SAT IS NO LONGER AVAILABLE - Students who miss the late registration deadline may be able to request Waitlist Status. This does not guarantee you a seat on test day. You will be admitted to the test center on a first-come, first-served basis, determined by when you arrive at the center, not on when you registered. This status may be available from the last (i.e late) registration deadline up until five days before test day. Test registration on test day at the test center is not available. If admitted, you will be charged $51.00 in addition to the registration fees.
- ACT Standby testing: $53
- Change test type, test date, or test center for SAT - Make the change no later than the Wednesday 2—3 weeks before your test date Changes to your test center or test date can be made online through your free account or by calling Customer Service. $29
- Change test for ACT, test date - $30, or test center - $30
- Extra score reports $12 for SAT & $13 for ACT
